Wings As Eagles Ministries Newsletter

Merry Christmas from all of us at The Dream Center on Pine Ridge!

We love you and appreciate all our partners for sacrificing to help build up the Dream Center in 2012! We have achieved much success for the cause of Christ!! We wanted to show some of the results from your giving! WAEM now has Lakota families serving whose lives are changing! To God be the Glory!! Happy New Year friends! Enjoy pics of the fruit! Love you!

These pictures are true miracles from heaven. He gives the strength and resources in the desert! The desert is blossoming and souls are seeing the Salvation of the Lord!! Celebrate with us! Celebrate Christ's love and mercy in longsuffering and patience. He gives us His grace for the race let it also be yours. Lets continue with the "Circle of Love" and help shelter homeless, foster children.

A wall at the Dream Center says "the future belongs to those who believe in their dreams!" This picture says it all as this precious native youth stands with a huge smile on his face where once there was none. We hope you will remember these young ones with a financial gift as the season of giving is upon us. Christ gave His life for us. Let us give life to those who are suffering in ways that we couldn't even imagine here in our home we call America. Thank you for your year end offering. We love you!

We still need your help for Christmas!

Your financial blessing would give great gifts to a lot of kids! Walmart gift cards are good too!

Reflecting on the past year

Sometimes I stand in wonder at the awesomeness of a Holy God and how He sustains and brings manna from heaven in times of lack. I pray today that you will hold on to the fact that you have a Father that sees all, knows all and loves you. We are a small ministry by the world's standards and our donations are not like that of many other ministries, rather small in comparison and especially not like the larger ministries. We work with the poor in our America in hidden out of the way places.

My amazement comes when standing on the Dream Center property realizing that a few short years ago it was an empty field. Lack of water, electricity, love or anything that was life sustaining. Desolate.

Still Gary and I saw the vision, the dream God placed in our hearts. The overwhelming odds we were to encounter. Yet, when you look at the picture's of the Dream Center it reveals His wonderful, mysterious grace, His love and the impossible. The impossible for us and only through Christ Jesus is it made possible. Also His love for these native children.

Reminds me of the story in the Bible of the widow who gave all that she had, which was so little, yet would be great in the Kingdom of Heaven. She gave out of her lack and not her wealth. God can take such a little and turn it into greatness! When we first laid eyes on the land, which is now where the Dream Center sits, we had about two hundred dollars and living in our camper. But we had a dream, faith and we loved a God we knew wanted us! As torn, messed up and imperfect as we are our Father wanted to use us. He wanted to bless us with His love. We gave it all we had because He loves us. Messing up over and over and never feeling we measured up to such great love or task. Here we are 18 years later still with hope in our hearts. Hope for a better future for our homeless native children and all the rez youth who find suicide better than living in this prison of hell they call home. "The Circle of Love is our hope for 2013. Please go with us and there we promise you will find love. God bless you and keep you safe. We love you and need each of you. We will keep you all in prayer! Merry Christmas to you and your families! Love, Lori
