Wings As Eagles Ministries

Thank you all for Giving, thank you teams for laboring!
Thank you Lord for establishing the ministry in 1995.

Happy Thanksgiving!!!

November is upon us and we want you all to know how grateful we are for the help and love shown to this ministry. It is a season of thanksgiving, even though we are truly thankful everyday. We pray for you our friends and thank Jesus for bringing you all to us, to help the Lakota children have a future. As we look towards the coming year, our hope is to bring the "Circle of Love" children's shelter to the Dream Center. Thank you for bringing Jesus the hurting children.

Octobers work!

Construction for missionary housing is in progress. Look at what has been accomplished in October! Even one inside wall!! Funding is needed to continue. Teams could work on the inside this winter., when we are able to purchase more materials. Love ya's!

TREE OF LIFE

As the Lakota children place stones on the altar, (below) it is a symbol of their innocent lives brought before God. Way up on the hill where the cross and altar to Jesus resides is a peace like no other. The children call it "their place" to talk to Jesus. And they do! In all kinds of weather the first place the kids want to run is to the hill to the altar, when they arrive at the Dream Center. It has become a place of peace on the rez for the Lakota kids. The Tree of Life that is painted on the Dream Center wall with their hands prints as leaves and the stones they placed at the altar, is a reminder of the responsibility and honor we all have to help these kids learn of Christ and have a life more abundantly in Him. Not to be taken in by the evil and poverty in which surrounds them. It does help them to keep their eye on Jesus! We pray you will remember us in your year end offering. Thank

DREAM CENTER CHRISTMAS

Christmas is coming! Get your Walmart gift cards in or gift boxes by Dec 10th!!! The Dream Center will hold two events, with a packed house each night might we add, on Dec. 12th and 13th.

Three teams will be joining us to help this year with all the preparations! There will be Christmas caroling in the communities with baked goods to give to each family! Whew! Lots to do!

We will also be going into the streets of Potato Creek a small community miles away that doesn't get noticed. Wings As Eagles has brought gifts to the children of this community each year.

These events would not be as successful as they are, nor could we serve as many children as we do without you!!

This season as we look upon all that we are thankful for, lets spread some of our blessings onto others who need the LOVE!!!
