Summer Fun Has Begun!

The Dream Center has begun its summer time with the children! Kids activities, lunches, BBQ's and so much more. It brings children's smiles that always warm the heart in the midst of so much rain!! We are now green but its very wet! Our teams have struggled through flooding and mosquitoes but have survived it all and endured! ~

We would like to bring to your attention some of the many issues these children are facing, most in dire situations and severe poverty. They have shared many stories of what they are dealing with. It would break the coldest heart to hear these children. The one thing we hear most often is a big very large dark man who goes around telling them to kill themselves. We know this spirit is real but will ultimately lose as we fight against it with God's Almighty power! We have youth of all ages from all different parts of the reservation who don't know each other tell the same story. Army of God, pray!

As the summer season gets in full gear. We would like your help in prayer for these special ones please. Finding out some real issues from these kids that needs to be lifted up in prayer and healed as only Jesus can do. (a handwritten note from Theresa) I HEAR VOICES TELLING ME TO DO BAD STUFF. It tells me to drown myself. Tells me that I should go to hell. I fell the same way as my brother does. It threatens me. Pray for Theresa and her brother.~

Bringing Love and Hope

Construction underway at the Dream Center

The Lord's blessings are overflowing with much needed lumber, insulation and supplies for the staff housing project. We are so grateful to all of you who give and to Crossroads for the amazing offerings to complete this shelter for our helpers! Joy, unspeakable joy waiting to see what the Lord will do next....The delivery was also very exciting the ministries Lakota staff to see!

Lot's of hard work happening this spring/summer to bring adequate housing for pastoral staff, who, we have faith, the Lord will send to help!! The Circle of Love will be our next journey! Oh, to be patient, I can't! ~Lori

So blessed by God to have plumbers and electricians! The wiring for the staff housing and plumbing all set! Now we just need to get the water over!

This sweet boy and girl received new coats, sent with love!
