Sewing Circle

Some of our sweet senior ladies came to us and asked for help to begin a sewing circle. Of course we will! We told them we would put it out there and see if any of our partners would be interested in helping them. Sewing machines, material, sewing supplies and quilt squares are needed. What a great time of fellowship it would be for these native women to come together and help their communities through sewing! If you would like to help them please make a donation to WAEM and mark it SEWING CIRCLE. Any good used sewing machines in your attic collecting dust is good too! We would like to bless them with sewing machines and material. Thank you all so much!

Bringing Love and Hope

Circle of Love Children's Shelter Update

Breaking ground on the Circle of Love Shelter is a vision we have shared with you. We know it is in God's timing, He sees the heartbreak and vital needs of the homeless and misplaced children here on the reservation. Reaching our goal of $36,000.00 has not been realized as of yet. We still have a desire to break ground this summer if we can raise the remaining amount for the groundwork to be completed to begin the building process. Water lines, septic system, civil engineering plans and concrete foundation for the first building to be moved to the site. We also checked into a metal building kit, which may be more cost effective.

$28,000.00 is yet to be raised which would allow us to move forward. We appreciate any amount gifted. God Bless you!

As you all remember I shared a journal entry of Nena's a few months ago. It was a portrait of a struggling teen in despair.

The smiles on her face and the freedom she felt that day on the beach in NY made all of us shed a tear or two. I wanted to share this picture of that moment of happiness in Nena. The struggles here are so real for these youth. Our hearts are full with love for our partners whom God has sent to help us endure the journey and be able to stay all these years. May you continue to see God in us. Through us you are bringing His Light to a dark world. Maybe you can't be here but without you and God we could never have achieved Nena's smile. Love you ~ Lori
