The Beauty of Summer

The darkness hides....the bright light of summer and Jesus brings smiles and hope once again to the children on the reservation. Troubles seem to lessen for awhile and fun take the place of worry. Meeting new friends and knowing they will be fed. That's what summer brings for hundreds of children at the Dream Center. ~~

A huge THANK YOU to all the team members, families and individuals who came and gave of their time and labors to make it a summer to remember!

Christmas at the Dream Center is only a few months away! Print your flyer off the website and get the word out!

Bringing Love and Hope

Don't forget the Circle of Love children's shelter is on the map! We continue to seek the Lord and ask for the financial blessing to make it happen soon! We will continue to keep you updated on the progress of the funding efforts. We are praying for 35 people to give $1,000.00 this fall season. That will take the project were it needs to be to jump start this vital need. If you can give any amount we deeply appreciate it. The funding is growing slowing but growing! The building donated had some major structural issues. We chose not to move it to the site. We know that God wants the children to have the best. Prayers and the Lord's people will build it! God Bless you.

SECRET SORROWS OF THE CHILDREN

The summer was a good one. The ministry was able to help and love on many children. I would not be me if I did not also express the horrors and sorrows I heard from some of these children's voices. My heart was broken many times this summer from the cries and extreme pain of these little ones. Meth has taken its toll on the family life here even more, as it pains me to say, the common alcohol misery. Two young children lost there lives just walking on the road to gunfire this summer, as well as the abuse, sexual violence, neglect, and suicide. One boy hanging on a tree behind an old abandoned church. My hope is that no one forgets these children suffering in silence and far, far away out of sight. With all the many voices today and all the troubles we face as a nation and individuals, my prayer is you never forget them and we all continue to do the Lord's will and never forget who we are nor our work here on this earth. Remember them in prayer and please pray for us as our time on the reservations has taken its toll. Pray for full time missionaries to join us as the laborers are definitely few. We will never give up the vision nor the work the Lord planted in our souls. Hope you continue to not give up the fight along with us. God Bless each of you and your families. Love, Lori
