Wings As Eagles Ministries Newsletter

I love this simple picture at the Dream Center playground. The children love the swings. Thank you Jesus that we can provide them.~

Happy Fall Season!

Praise the Lord for all things! Fall has returned again this year and for that we should be very thankful. All of us are facing troubles around us each day but together with Christ we can overcome each and every struggle and praise HIM! Keeping our eyes on things above and not below, our treasures are there and that we can be assured if we would surrender all to the one and only Jesus Christ, Lord of Lord, King of Kings! As each day passes we pray for endurance in a troubled world. We pray for each of our partners and their families. This fall we are expecting great things as we finish the construction work, double up on outreach love and bible studies for the winter months. We hope you will keep us in your thoughts and prayers as the Lord guides us each day to bring His message to a forgotten people. On the back of this newsletter is our Christmas flyer. We ask if you can share this flyer with family, friends, church, schools and anywhere they can help, in hopes to giving lots of underprivileged children a gift this December. You may use plastic bins, which are great, or shoe boxes. Shoe boxes you can wrap with the lid wrapped separately, please. Bins you can place a pretty bow! Also boxes of toys unwrapped is fine. New toys only please. Skateboards and basketballs no need to wrap! Thank you! Have a wonderful and safe fall. Gary and Lori~
